

The fitting below is a specially manufactured pendant complete with ES lamp holder suitable for all types of ES and ES LED Globes. The unit is constructed from powder coated steel that has been cut and formed and weaved together using stainless steel screws. The steel forms are powder coated individually and assembled with stainless steel screws. The intricate weave pattern allows a patterned light to escape from the sides to highlight its form.

Elettra Products are Australian owned and manufactured.

Powder Coated Steel Weave Pendant

SPECIFICATIONS:

Material : Steel construction

Lamp holder : ES

Maximum : 100watt globe

Finish: Powder coated formed steel weaved together and secured with stainless screws.

Made to order :

Overall length of the fitting is 400mm and the diameter is 280mm. It is suspended by 1.2mm Stainless wire. The formed steel is powder coated and screwed together.

Total weight of the fitting is 1.5 kg.

